Aurora ISLAND

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES, CANADA · SEPTEMBER 2026 · 8 DAYS & 7 NIGHTS

Get ready to see the most spectacular show on earth. Join us on this trip of a lifetime to watch the Aurora Borealis from our private island in Canada's Northwest Territories.

Aurora Island is the most unique and ideal place to watch the Northern Lights. With pristine waters surrounding our island, the Auroras reflect incredibly. September is the perfect time of year for comfortable viewing.

Temperatures are mild, there are few bugs or flies, and the lights shine wildly, even during the blue hour at dusk. Aurora Island and Yellowknife are geographically situated in the part of the world where this phenomenon is most visible.

THE BEST PLACE FOR

NORTHERN LIGHTS

EXPLORE THE LAND FROM A HAVILAND BEAVER FLOATPLANE & CANOE TO SECRET ISLANDS!

Kick out to canoe on the most placid of lakes, enjoy Yellowknife's sumptuous dining spots, get an intricate look at the northern way of life.

UNIQUE OFF-THE-GRID CAMPING SPOTS ON SECLUDED ISLANDS WHERE FEW HAVE BEEN.

This one week adventure to the Northwest Territories includes 5-days on our remote wilderness island.

The Northwest Territories are one of the top places in the world to watch the Northern Lights. Unlike other northern destinations, the sea is far away, therefore it is a very arid area in general. What does this have to do with seeing the lights? The less humidity in the air, the more crisp and clear the nights. There are rarely continuous days of cloud coverage, which allows for open views of the skies. Each time we have spent one month and saw the lights on average 23 out of the 30 days!

Roberto Gibbons Gomez

Roberto Gibbons Gomez was born and raised in Montreal, Canada, to a Mexican mother and Canadian father. He is a backcountry explorer, kitesurfer, professional expeditioner, entrepreneur, photographer, videographer, influencer and bon vivant. With over 35 countries traversed – Roberto’s joie de vivre permeates through all that he creates.

A graduate of Concordia University in Sociology and Anthropology, Roberto’s thirst for adventure came from attending kids camps in Eastern Canada. Always smiling, you can find him kiting in the Turks & Caicos Islands, searching for Northern Lights in Yellowknife, float plane biking in the Chilcotins, kayaking in Iceland’s glacial lagoons, biking in Whistler, or camping in some of the most spectacular places in the world while shooting for renowned brands.

Roberto speaks three languages— English, French and Spanish—and was one of the first to take advantage of Facebook to inspire others to venture beyond their comfort zone, while also creating spectacular content for some of the most recognized brands in the world. As a father of four—Mikio, Catalina, Ariella and Athena—Roberto is no stranger to entertaining kids. Indeed, he often includes them in his shoots for brands like Thule, Nemo Equipment, Tourism Whistler, Whistler Blackcomb, Jeep, Airstream, Trek, Quietkat, Pelican and many more.

Follow his adventures on Instagram (@theexpeditioners) and see all the amazing places he and his family travel to. With over 200,000 fans on Facebook under his Expeditioners brand, Roberto and his family have been a trusted source for the past ten years on destinations to travel to, gear to explore, and adventures to experience. He hosted a travel series on Discovery Channel in Canada with over 90 million impressions, and was selected to be on TV for Tourism Canada’s 150th anniversary. You can follow along on his day to day via @expedsroberto.
